

Georgia State Prison

GEORGIA
DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS

MISSION

The Georgia Department of Corrections protects the public by operating safe and secure facilities through the development of professional staff and effective offender management.

Timothy C. Ward, Commissioner
Alan Watson, Chief of Staff
Ahmed Holt, Assistant Commissioner Facilities Division

Built in 1936 to house juveniles, Georgia State Prison (GSP), formerly Georgia Industrial Institute, was purchased by the state in 1937 for approximately 1.3 million dollars. At one time, GSP was considered a Hi-Max facility, responsible for housing the most dangerous offenders in the state. The mission of the facility, was to ensure public safety by effectively operating a safe and secure facility while housing medium-security general population, mental health and problematic male adult offenders incarcerated in the Georgia prison system.

HISTORY

- On July 23, 1978, Correctional Officer Dan Harrison was killed in the line of duty during a riot referred to as Bloody Sunday
- Officer Harrison was killed while attempting to aid a fellow Officer
- A bronze statue was erected and placed in the rotunda of GSP in his memory
- On May 29, 2013, the Department dedicated a memorial plaque outside Roberts Chapel at GDC headquarters in memory of officers killed in the line of duty
- Officer Harrison's name is one of the 27 that appear on the plaque
