

PERFORMANCE INCENTIVE CREDIT

The Performance Incentive Credit (PIC) Program provides offenders an opportunity to reduce the length of their prison sentence through satisfactory progress in cognitive-behavioral programs, education, vocational, work details, and good behavior. The Georgia State Board of Pardons and Paroles determines eligibility. Offenders can accumulate one point for completing all activities within a category of their reentry program case plan (one point equals one month of credit). An offender can accumulate up to 12 months' credit. The PIC program offers three ways offenders can actively and positively accumulate PIC points: completion of reentry case-plan, detail/work assignments, and educational improvement beyond the case plan.
